

Flossie Miller Meade's Pancake Syrup

¼ cup of brown sugar

4 cups of white sugar

2 cups of water

1 teaspoon of vanilla flavoring

1 teaspoon of maple flavoring

Stir water and sugar together in a large saucepan bring to a boil-

Reduce heat, cover, and boil on low heat for another 5-10 minutes

Stir in flavorings

Pour over hot pancakes.

This was my Grandma, Flossie Miller Meade's recipe. She ordered her flavorings from Raleigh products.

About the cook:

My Grandma Flossie was one of my favorite cooks! Flossie Miller Meade was my paternal grandmother. She was the mother to 6 children; my Dad was her second born son. She was a homemaker who grew up during the Great Depression. She never threw anything away. Her pancakes with homemade syrup were one of my favorite breakfasts ever.
